HERRING LIBRARY HALL.

By the generous donation of Silas C. Herring, Esq., of New-York City, and other friends of the University, a Library Hall is building with the capacity of fifty thousand volumes. It has been named after the principal contributor. It will be completed by the approaching commencement, or so nearly so, as to be made the occasion of an address by the Rev. J. Hazzard Hartzell, A. M., of Buffalo, N. Y.

UNIVERSITY GROUNDS.

The grounds consist of twenty-six acres, on an elevation commanding a view of the village of Canton, and of an extended landscape in every direction. They are being laid out with care and ornamented with trees, shrubs and flowers.

YOUNG LADIES.

Ladies are admitted into the University on the same conditions as gentlemen, and on completing either course of study, receive corresponding degrees.

Miss Doty will look after the health and comfort of lady students, and take special pains to aid them in finding pleasant and convenient boarding places in the village with private families.

THE CHAPIN PROFESSORSHIP.

In consideration of the generous donations of members of Rev. Dr. E. H. Chapin's congregation to the University, the Professorship of Intellectual and Moral Philosophy in the collegiate department has been named the Chapin Professorship.

Free Scholarships in St. Lawrence County, N. Y.

Four Scientific and four Classical Scholarships—two annually—to the Union High School of Canton, St. Lawrence County.

Four Classical Scholarships—one annually—to the Ogdensburg Educational Institute of Ogdensburg, St. Lawrence County.

Four Classical Scholarships—one annually—to the High School of Massena, St. Lawrence County.

Four Classical Scholarships—one annually—to the High School of Richville, St. Lawrence County.

Four Classical Scholarships—one annually—to the Academic Department of the Union School of Waddington, St. Lawrence County.

Two Scientific and two Classical Scholarships—one annually—to the High School of Hermon, St. Lawrence County.

Four Classical Scholarships—one annually—to the St. Lawrence Academy, Potsdam, St. Lawrence County.

Two Scientific and two Classical Scholarships—one annually—to Lawrenceville Academy, Lawrenceville, St. Lawrence County.

Two Scientific and two Classical Scholarships—one annually—to the Union High School of Gouverneur, St. Lawrence County.

Also to Clinton Liberal Institute, Clinton, Oneida County, Four Scientific and four Classical Scholarships—two annually.

These Scholarships are granted and established under the following conditions and regulations :

1. They may be granted to students of either sex.
2. The candidate for a scholarship shall declare his or her purpose to pursue the full course of four years in the University.
3. The candidate shall be in good health, and pledged to study the laws of health and to observe them.
4. The candidate shall present to the Examining Committee evidence of good moral character.
5. A willful violation of the Rules and Regulations of the University; the habitual use of intoxicating liquors; or any course of conduct unbecoming a young man or woman as a member of the University, shall be deemed by the President as a sufficient cause to forfeit said scholarship.
6. The following are the conditions of examination of candidates for scholarships, and apply alike to all the schools named :

The Scientific scholarship shall be granted to that candidate, who, before a Committee appointed by, or caused to be appointed by, the President of the University, shall be judged by said Committee to have sustained the best examination requisite to enter the Scientific course in the University, without conditions, in the following studies: Arithmetic, Elementary Algebra, English Grammar, Geography, and History of the United States. The examination before the Examining Committee shall be final, and the certificate of said Committee shall be deemed necessary and sufficient for the student to take his or her place in the University in full standing.

The candidate for the Classical scholarship, in addition to the examination required for a Scientific scholarship, must receive from the Examining Committee a certificate for the best sustained examination requisite to enter the Classical course in the University without conditions, in the following studies: Latin Grammar; Cæsar, 3 Books; Sallust's Catiline; Virgil's Æneid, 6 Books; Cicero, 5 Orations; Greek Grammar; Xenophon's Anabasis, 2 Books; Homer's Iliad, 2 Books.

6. In the cases where four Scientific and four Classical scholarships are guaranteed, one of each shall be given annually.

In the cases where two Scientific and two Classical are guaranteed, it is intended that there shall be alternation—one year a Scientific scholarship be given, the next a Classical, and so forth.

7. On any young man or woman, over fifteen years of age, presenting the certificate of the Examining Committee from any of the above-named schools, countersigned by the President of the University, to the Secretary of the University, the Secretary is hereby authorized and directed to issue to such person the scholarship named in his or her certificate, which scholarship so held shall be in lieu of all tuition against said person.

8. In case any student holding one of these scholarships shall fail to maintain the requisite standing for continuance in the University, or from sickness, or other cause, is absent for the space of two successive terms from the regular exercises of his or her class, the scholarship may be declared vacant by the President.

9. It is hereby declared, that it is expected, and it is respectfully asked, of the various Principals of the several schools hereby guaranteed free scholarship, that they give the President of the University due notice, prior to the opening of the Fall Term of the University, of any candidate, or candidates, in their respective schools for the said scholarships. In which case, the President shall thereupon appoint, or cause to be appointed, a suitable Committee to decide upon the fitness of said candidate or candidates for a scholarship in the University.

FOUNDATION.

This School was established through efforts which originated in the New York Universalist Educational Society, and is sustained by the Universalist Denomination of Christians.

REQUISITES FOR ADMISSION.

Applicants for admission must bring satisfactory testimonials as to their moral and religious character; if they are members of any church, they should bring a certificate to that effect. They must also be acquainted with the essential branches of a good English education. They must be believers in the Holy Scriptures, and must have a fixed determination to devote their lives to the Christian ministry.

DIPLOMAS.

Those only will be considered graduates of the school and entitled to its diploma, who shall have completed the course of study herein laid down. Those who desire may pursue a partial course, and will be entitled to a certificate stating the extent of the same.

HERRING LIBRARY.

This Library was founded by the munificence of Mr. S. C. Herring, of New York. It contains a valuable and well-selected collection of about 6,000 volumes, comprising the libraries of the late Prof. Dr. K. A. Credner, of the University of Giessen, and the late Rev. S. C. Loveland. The ample advantages thus furnished to students will be much increased by constant and liberal additions to the Library. Private Libraries, containing upwards of 4,000 volumes, are also open for the use of students.

COURSE OF STUDY.*FIRST YEAR.

Logic—Thompson's Laws of Thought. Moral Philosophy—Bowen's Ethics. Biblical Archaeology—Jahn. Rhetoric—Day. Greek—Crosby's Grammar and Lessons, and Xenophon's Anabasis. Biblical Geography—Coleman. Intellectual Philosophy—Bowen's Hamilton. Ecclesiastical History—Hase. Hebrew, (optional).

SECOND YEAR.

History of Doctrines—Hagenbach. Ancient History of Universalism—Ballou. Critical reading of the New Testament, with the use of Winer's New Testament Grammar. Hebrew, (optional).

THIRD YEAR.

Pastoral Theology—Vinet. Natural Theology—Paley. Emotional Religion and the Inner Life—Mason on Self-Knowledge, and Clarke's Doctrine of Prayer. Modern Dogmatics. Study of Sermons. Critical readings of the New Testament, with use of Winer's Grammar. Hebrew, (optional). Exegesis—Doede's Hermeneutics, with Lectures. History of Philosophy—Schwegler.

GENERAL EXERCISES.

Lessons in Elocution are given on Monday of each week.

After the study of Homiletics is commenced, in the second year, Sermons will be preached and criticised, on Wednesday of each week during the remainder of the course.

Three courses of Lectures are given, one course each year, on the following subjects, respectively: 1st, Life of Jesus; 2d, Introduction to the Old and New Testaments; 3d, Biblical Exegesis.

Conference Meetings are held every Sunday afternoon in the College Chapel.

TERMS AND VACATIONS.

The Academic year commences on the fourth Wednesday in September, and ends on the Thursday next before the 4th of July.

There are two vacations; one of two weeks at the close of the first term; the other of ten weeks next preceding the commencement of the Academic year.

EXPENSES.

No charge is made for Tuition or for use of the Library.

Good Board is furnished in the Institution at $3.50 per week, washing included.

Students are expected to furnish their own bedding and the furniture of their rooms. A merely nominal sum is charged for room rent.

SCHOLARSHIPS.

The Board of Trustees of the General Convention, adopting the principle that the names of beneficiaries shall not be made public, have prescribed the following rules in regard to Scholarships:

1. Each candidate for these Scholarships must present unexceptionable recommendations as to his moral and religious character, with proofs of proper preparatory education; also a declaration of his desire and purpose to devote his life to the ministry of the Universalist Church. It is in view of such a desire and purpose that he is permitted to enjoy the benefit of a scholarship.

2. The Principal of the School shall, at the end of each year, report to the Board the standing of each student receiving aid, as to piety, talents, diligence, scholarship, prudence, health and general influence.

3. The Committee of the Board of Trustees may discontinue aid to any student, when, for any reason, it may seem doubtful whether he will be useful in the ministry; and each person receiving aid shall sign an obligation to repay, with interest, all the money he shall receive from the Board in case he fails to enter or continue in the Universalist ministry, or withdraws from duty before the completion of the course, unless such failure or withdrawal be through no fault of his.

4. The appropriation for each full scholarship shall be $180 per year, payable to the draft of the student on the Treasurer of the Board, endorsed by the Principal of the School. Sixty dollars on the first days of October, January and April respectively.
